

Energy Night

FREE FILM & ENERGY EFFICIENCY INFO SESSION Hosted by Suffolk University

Co-sponsored by: Beacon Hill Civic Association, Boston Climate Action Network, Clean Water Action, and the Mass Energy Consumers Alliance.

Date: Monday June 23, 2008 Time: 6-8pm

Location: Suffolk University, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, 1st floor
Amenities Center: conveniently located less than a five-minute walk from the Blue, Green, Orange, Red, and Silver Lines.

Event features:

- Networking
- Energy Efficiency Info Session led by Michael Berry of MA ENERGY STAR Homes/ICF International
- 50-minute documentary "Kilowatt Ours"
- Conversation/Q&A
- Free snacks and giveaways

*The electricity used at the event will be offset by a contribution to Mass Energy's
New England Wind Fund.*

To sign up, email lglick@cleanwater.org.

About the film: "Kilowatt Ours" examines the environmental and social consequences of America's voracious appetite for coal-generated electricity and suggests solutions that are surprisingly accessible and affordable to the average American.

To learn more about Suffolk's environmental programs, visit www.suffolk.edu/sustainability.

