

Boston Tea Party '08

Join us on Sunday, December 14th, Noon till 6:00 PM at Faneuil Hall

The theme of this years Boston Tea Party event will focus on setting up a Constitutional, sound money system at the State level, to compete with the Federal Reserve system.

This year's nationally renowned speakers include:

Dr. Edwin Vieira, perhaps America's foremost constitutional scholar (also top of his Harvard Law class), will be giving an important address about these subjects with impeccable historical documentation and logic.

Dr. Rand Paul, son of presidential candidate Dr. Ron Paul and last year's key note speaker

Dr. Katherine Albrecht is fighting to stop RFID tagging and chipping. A new consumer goods tracking system called Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) is poised to enter all of our lives, with profound implications for consumer privacy.

John McManus, President of the John Birch Society, will address the economic consequences of the federal bailout.

Boston
Tea Party '08
will be webcast live!

Seating is limited. General Admission tickets can be purchased for $17.76.

For more information and to purchase your tickets, visit:

www.BostonTeaParty08.com

Can't make it Boston? You can still be part of this historic event while ensuring your funds are used to promote fiscal responsibility within the states.

You can pre-order a special DVD of the event as well as watch a LIVE webcast of the entire event for just $17.76.

Visit our website for details.

www.BostonTeaParty08.com