

PRINCIPLED RESISTANCE TO THE ISRAELI OCCUPATION

Noam Chomsky

Prof. Emeritus of Linguistics at MIT, author, lecturer and leading critic of US foreign policy

Leila Farsakh

Author, teacher of political science at UMB, recipient of Cambridge Peace Commission Peace and Justice Award

Shachaf Polakow

Anarchists Against The Wall (AATW)

Nancy Murray, moderator

President, Gaza Mental Health Foundation, member of BCPR and US Campaign to End the Israeli Occupation

February 17 • 7:00 pm • First Parish Church, Cambridge
[Mass. Ave. & Church St.]

Donations will be requested to support the legal costs for both Palestinian and Israeli activists who are arrested and charged in the course of the struggle.

photos by Dennis Fox

For the past five years members of the Israeli-based organization, Anarchists Against the Wall, have worked alongside the non-violent Palestinian popular movement, to fight expansion of the Israeli wall, and recently to oppose the Israeli atrocities in Gaza.

In December 2008, AATW and the Bilin Village Committee were jointly awarded the prestigious Carl von Ossietzky Medal, by the Berlin-based International League of Human Rights, named after the Nobel Peace Prize winner who died in a Nazi concentration camp.

This forum is an opportunity to learn about AATW's efforts and to hear what local activists view as opportunities for principled resistance within the US and internationally.

Endorsers: American Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee-Boston Chapter (ADC), American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), American Jews for a Just Peace (AJJP), Boston Coalition for Palestinian Rights (BCPR), Cambridge Bethlehem People to People Project (CBPPP), Friends of Sabeel, New England, Grassroots International, Jewish Voice for Peace (JVP), Jewish Women for Justice in Israel/Palestine, Unitarian Universalist for Justice in the Middle East, Visions of Peace with Justice in Israel/Palestine (VOPJ)