

Co-Sponsors: Boston UNAC (United National Antiwar Committee), United for Justice with Peace, Alliance for Democracy – Boston/Cambridge & North Bridge Chapters, Peace & Justice Task Force of Watertown Citizens for Environmental Safety, Massachusetts Coalition for Healthy Communities, Massachusetts Global Action, Boston University Antiwar Coalition

NO WAR, NO WARMING!

Photonics - Room 206 , 8 St. Mary's Street
Close to the BU Central T Stop ( Green Line B)

Featured Speakers:

Boston University, 7-9 PM

Barry Sanders, author of The Green Zone: The Environmental Costs of Militarism, examines the environmental impact of US military practices and declares military activity, from fuel emissions to radioactive waste to defoliation campaigns, as the single-greatest contributor to the worldwide environmental crisis.

Friday, February 11, 2011

– suggested donation, $5.00 –

Dr. Maggie Zhou, biologist, member of Massachusetts Coalition for Healthy Communities and Climate SOS, will discuss the climate justice perspective, international climate conferences in Cancun/Copenhagen/Cochabamba, and the race to militarism vs. peace.

For further information, contact Boston UNAC at BostonUNAC@gmail.com