

Celebrate Pastors for Peace
Caravan to Cuba
Friends Meeting at Cambridge
5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge, MA 02138
Wednesday July 6, 2011 6pm – 9pm

By traveling to Cuba with humanitarian aid without a U.S. government license, Pastors for Peace challenges the U.S. economic blockade against Cuba as well as the blockade on the minds of the American people about the achievements of the Cuba people and the Cuban Revolution

Host the Caravan and Celebrate the Legacy of Pastors for Peace Founder, Rev. Lucius Walker with music, dinner, speakers, discussion and literature

Special Guest Speaker Rev. Edward W. Rodman, John Seely Stone Professor of Pastoral Theology and Urban Ministry, Episcopal Divinity School and Ellen Bernstein, Acting Co-Director of the Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization

Sponsored by the Peace and Social Concerns Committee, Friends Meeting at Cambridge, July 26th Coalition of Boston, Newton Cuba Solidarity, ANSWER Coalition Boston, International Committee to Free the Cuban Five, Bikes Not Bombs, World Fellowship

For more information 617 916-2265

"We don't need a government license. Love is our license."
Rev. Tom Smith, Pastors for Peace