St. Peter's Episcopal Church

838 Massachusetts Ave., Central Sq., Cambridge

Please join us as we publicly remember and celebrate the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Central Square, Cambridge:

 12:00 to 1:45 PM: Celebration of Dr. King's Life and Work for Peace, Justice, and Transformation • inside St. Peter's Episcopal Church • 838 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge

 2:00 to 2:45 PM: Informal lunch and community gathering
In the undercroft (basement) at St. Peter's

Join us as we gather as a community to hear Dr. King's words calling for peace, justice and transformation, along with brief remarks by Pete Davis, a Harvard student who participated in a reenactment of the 1961 Freedom Rides in connection with the recent PBS film.

Free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
