

a program at friends meeting-cambridge israel, gaza & the west bank

Gaza and the West Bank, a photographic exhibit by Skip Schiel
January & February, 2013

Mon-Fri, 10-3,
other hours
possible Off hours
appointments:
970-209-8346

Exhibit reception
January 20,
2013, Sunday, 12:15

*A look at the exhibit and a short talk about the process of making the photographs.
With sales of photos, DVDs,
and books.
Light
refreshments served.*

Israel, the Occupied Territories,
and Nonviolent Resistance, a slide show by Skip Schiel
February 7, Thursday, 7 pm

How does the occupation affect people's lives? What are the mechanisms that keep the occupation in place? A look at the impact of walls, fences, bypass roads, roadblocks, checkpoints, and settlements. Schiel also sheds light on how Palestinians, with Israeli and international support, nonviolently resist the occupation.

Skip Schiel is a Cambridge, MA-based photojournalist, photographing in Israel and Palestine to investigate and portray conditions and struggles since 2003. He will return in spring 2013 for another 3 months and invites people to accompany him.

A Panel of Recent Quaker Visitors to Palestine-Israel
February 17, Sunday, 12:15 pm

Local voices about Israel-Palestine: Everett Mendelsohn, Jonathan Vogel-Borne, and Skip Schiel, moderated by Phoebe Hogue-Rodley

Participatory/Socially Engaged Photography
February 18 and 25, Mondays, 7-9 pm

A 2-part workshop by Skip Schiel about the type of photography he and many others practice such as W. Eugene Smith and Dorothea Lange—a participant-photographer tackling topics with political undercurrents.

By the Waters of Babylon, a talk and slide show by Minga Claggett-Borne and Jonathan Vogel-Borne

February 21, Thursday, 7 pm

"... there we wept ... as we remembered Zion"

About their recent trip to Israel/Palestine with Christian Peacemaker Teams.

Friends Meeting at Cambridge••5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge MA

near Harvard Square••sponsored by the Peace & Social Concerns Committee

617-441-7756••skipschiel@gmail.com