

MAY DAY DELEGATION TO EL SALVADOR

April 28–May 4, 2013

Calling union members and organizers!

The Salvadoran labor movement is calling for international solidarity as they battle a US-backed scheme to privatize El Salvador's last public industries!

Join a delegation with the Committee in Solidarity with the People of El Salvador (CISPES) to:

- ★ Share strategies to defend the public sector and union jobs with Salvadoran union leaders
- ★ Speak out against US economic and political intervention
- ★ Learn about labor organizing and building popular power under the country's FIRST leftist government
- ★ Take to the streets with over 75,000 workers on International Workers' Day!

Approximate Cost: $1550-2200

In-Country Costs: $600, Registration Fee: $150-$300, Airfare: $500-$800,

Material Aid: $300-$500. Fundraising support is available!
