

Hemingway's Cuban Son

*Reflections on the Writer
by His Longtime Majordomo*
René Villarreal and Raúl Villarreal

ART, LITERATURE AND DANCE

June 27, 2013, 6:30 - 10 PM

FREE EVENT

6:30 – 8:30 PM

Book presentation:

Hemingway's Cuban Son

Author Raúl Villarreal presents Hemingway's Cuban Son, a book based on memories of his father René, who was not only Hemingway's longtime majordomo in Cuba, but also his confidant and a friend.

Co-presented by Latin Art Space.

8:00 – 10:00 PM

¡Muévete!

Connect to the intoxicating rhythms with live and recorded music, and engage directly with interactive dance performances by dancers from MetaMovements (Anara Frank and DJ Jay Salsa).

In the Upper Gallery Chévere!

Heavily influenced by their Cuban heritage and upbringing, four New York-based Cuban visual artists (Clara Morera, Cepp Selgas, Bernardo Navarro, and Jorge Valdés) explore African icons, folklore and religious syncretization.

Curated by Astrid Martinez-Jones of Latin Art Space.

www.MulticulturalArtsCenter.org

Presented by

MULTICULTURAL ARTS CENTER
Exploring Diversity Through Visual and Performing Arts

41 Second St,
East Cambridge, MA
617-577-1400

in collaboration with

 Latin Art Space
Art From Cuba and Beyond – Boutique Tours to Cuba
www.latinartspace.com

www.metamovements.com